Venice, March 5. Last Week a Man went into the House of Sig. Maruzzi, a principal Greek Merchant, and shot him dead upon the Spot. The Murderer being stopt in the House, gave himself several Wounds, of which he died in Prison two or three Days after. He confessed before the Magistrate, that he committed the horrid Fact out of Revenge, because Sig. Maruzzi had sequestered his Effects for the Payment of a Debt which he owed him. On the Thursday before Lent, the Doge and Senate were present at a Firework and other publick Shews exhibited in St. Mark's Place, according to annual Custom, in Memory of a signal Victory obtained in the year 1170, over Uldarick, Patriarch of Aquileia, and taking him Prisoner. Yesterday were publickly burnt in St. Mark's Place, by Order of the Magistrates, several Copies of a Greek Treatise, printed without Licence, in Defence of the Doctrines of the Greek Church, and in Opposition to those of the Roman Catholick. There was a violent Shock of an Earthquake in Corfu the 14th past, and since that Time a slight one at Feltre.

Their Catholick Majesties continue in good Health at their Palace of Buen-Retiro; where they received, this Morning, the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, and Nobility, on the Occasion of its being the Birth-Day of the Infante Duke of Parma.
